COLONEL ARTHUR ROGERS

For Distinguished Service

The first World War started the Automobile Industry of today. The present World War will be the beginning of tomorrow's great industry, Aviation. Since North Carolina gave birth to the first airplane at Kitty Hawk, N. C., every young North Carolinian should consider it his birthright privilege and responsibility to add to this wonderful achievement.

Arthur H. Rogers
Col. US Air Corps

TO FLIGHT

There's a big flight scheduled for us '44 graduates—a flight on which we'll wish more fervently than ever before that the dream of our elders, of a world of everlasting peace, had come true.

In '42 they had no warning. December 7, 1941, fixed that. Scarcely sure of their wings, the fledglings were pushed out of the nest before they had a chance to know how high they'd have to fly. In '43 it was only a little better; persons within a year of graduation usually have their routes well plotted, and they had set their compasses to follow the sky-roads of peace.

We of '44 have a better chance. We know about ceiling and visibility conditions we're likely to meet. We've had a chance to strengthen our wings and set our instruments for blind-flying through this.

Yes, there's a big flight scheduled—but we'll meet that schedule, armed and prepared—all set for a safe and certain landing.

Basic Information

There is hardly one of us today, civilian or serviceman, who is not conscious of the ever growing interest in airplanes and the development of air-power. With this in mind, we have chosen aviation as the theme for the 1944 LATIPAC.

As you turn the pages, you will find a "flight log" of the activities of the '44 senior class of Needham Broughton High School. You will find recorded here, memories of our training years, for Broughton has been the proving ground for our basic training, our practice flights, and finally our preliminary take-off.

"Off we go, into the wide blue yonder, flying high." Thus the 178 seniors of the class of '44 bid dear old Broughton their fond goodbyes after a very eventful year.

The seniors, fully realizing the importance of hard work in war time, have taken their share of it in their stride. The boys, preparing for some phase of the defense of our country have taken muscle building workouts at third periods, in addition to studying for air corps and other service examinations. The girls, selling war bonds and stamps and preparing themselves for their places somewhere on the homefront, have set an excellent example for the incoming senior girls to follow.

Though the pace of the "Age of Flight" will be a swift one, the class of '44 has laid a solid foundation and will soar into the horizon of tomorrow with ours the motto, "Destination Victory."

The Student Council, with a capable group of officers and industrious committees, has functioned to give the students a pleasant year at Needham Broughton. Each committee has endeavored to fulfill its duties. Classroom and entertainment films were provided and an intramural sports program was carried out.

Three delegates, Dan Martin, Ivan Armstrong, and Henry Lineberger, and Caroline Powell, adviser of the council, attended the State Council Congress held in Lexington, March 17 and 18. The constitution was revised under the direction of the Citizenship Committee, and the Council, in connection with the War Effort Committee, sponsored several drives to promote sales of War Bonds and Stamps. Triple-threat jeeps and a P-51 "Mustang" fighter were purchased.

Through the year, the Council has maintained its previous high standards and has helped to provide a successful year for Broughton students.

Student Council

Social: Chairmen of the social committee were Jean White and Anne Johnson. They and their committee served to welcome and entertain visitors and to arrange social functions for the student body. Outstanding social events have been the tea for the new students, the football victory dance, and the Student Leaders' Banquet.

Calendar: The Calendar Committee made posters, place cards, and invitations. It made posters and charts for our War Bond campaign and kept a calendar of the school activities. Co-chairmen were Phyllis Riley and Theodore Kellogg.

Sports: The duty of the Sports Committee is to provide intramural games for students not participating in varsity sports. The co-chairmen were Betty Jean Culbreth and Sidney Martin, who sponsored the sale of basketball season tickets, ping-pong tournaments, and intramural basketball tournament awards.

Audio-Visual: Alex Veazey and Joe Norwood were co-chairmen of this committee. The main activities were the selling of season tickets, the organization of the Audio-Visual Club, and the provision of community service through Audio-Visual aids.

Citizenship: The chairman of this committee was Henry Lineberger. He and his committee sponsored the magazine campaign and also revised the constitution. This committee did much to encourage the development of good-all-around citizens at Broughton.

Elections: The sergeant-at-arms of the council, Hugh Stone, was chairman of this committee, which directed the elections for each class and for the Student Council. It also directed the adoption of the revised constitution.

House: The duties of this committee are to make an attempt to keep order in halls and cafeteria, and to initiate any necessary improvements in the building. The main activity was the spring clean-up campaign. The chairman was Florence Turner.

Grounds: Nell Fulghum was chairman of the Grounds Committee. She and her committee improved the exterior of the school by planting trees and keeping the grounds clean.

Publicity: The duty of the Publicity Committee is to boost school activities by submitting as many articles as possible to the two local papers concerning various school events. Peggy Davis headed this committee.

Assembly: The chairmen of this committee were George Adams and Gladys Chambers. They planned, as far as possible, the assembly calendar.

Points: Virginia Campbell was chairman of the Points Committee. The duties were to see that the school honors were evenly distributed by enforcing the Point System and to award the Service Key at the end of the year.

War Effort: This committee worked to increase the sale of bonds and stamps and to promote campaigns toward the war-effort. Vic Bell was chairman.

National Honor Society

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, Service

Elected by student vote and a faculty committee, there were 22 members of the National Honor Society this year. Officers for the fall term were Virginia Campbell, president; Betty Jean Culbreth, vice president; Dorothy Singleton, secretary; and John Crabtree, treasurer. On October 22, the four seniors tapped were Marjorie Caviness, Mary Ellen Wellons, LeRoy Martin, Alex Veazey, and Marion McIntosh. For the first time last fall, members of the junior class were tapped at the beginning of their junior year. They were Sarah Denny, Betty Betts, Fitz Caudle, and Josephine Snow.

In the spring term the officers were Alex Veazey, president; Fitz Caudle, vice president; Josephine Snow, secretary; and Marjorie Caviness, treasurer. The second tapping ceremony was February 4 and new members were Mary Evelyn West and Charlotte Williams, seniors; and Janie Lee Parker, Tom Parker, and Susanne Stokes, juniors.

Among the projects undertaken for the year was promoting scholarship in the ninth and tenth grades. Hazel Griffin is the adviser.

Needham Broughton Band

THE BROUGHTON BAND: The Needham Broughton High School band, composed of thirty members, has taken an active part in the activities of the school this year. During the year, the group played for football games, chapel programs, the Spanish-American War Veterans' Convention, Navy Day, the Spring Music Festival, the State Teachers' Convention, and finally, Commencement Exercises.

The Junior band, composed of twenty-three members, is a preparatory group, which will emerge finally into the advanced band. The junior band class has met each day at seventh period.

This year, for the first time, the Broughton band had a directress rather than a director. Miss Albertine Lefler came to Broughton from Greensboro College and with her capable direction has done a great deal to further the progress of the band.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Mrs. Leo deSola, the Broughton Glee Club, composed of 68 members, has been very active in its presentation of musical programs. Outstanding among them have been several chapel programs, several appearances before civic clubs during the Christmas season and later in the spring, at patriotic rallies, before the P.-T.A. in April, and finally the Annual Spring Concert in May.

Highlighting Broughton's musical contributions was the operetta "The Gypsy Rover," which received warm words of praise from the large audience. Leading roles were played by Phyllis Cooper and John Crabtree, supported by Mary Willis Bain, Doris Harris, Bobby Geile, Jimmy Wood, Arthur Aronson, LeRoy Martin, A. C. Hall, Jr., Bobby Walker, Frank Goodwin, and Richard Bennett, and the eighth grade chorus assisting in the production. Emma Gupton served as student director; Jean Hodgins, business manager; Anne Brown and Virginia Campbell, accompanists.

The Hi-Y this year has been very active in and out of school. The club now has thirty-five members which are from the junior and senior classes.

The annual minstrel was presented February 11, to a capacity audience. The club cleared $150 from the presentation which was used for the Hi-Y dance and for improvements around the school. In addition to presenting the minstrel, the members of the club sold ads for the LATIPAC and have contributed much to make the book a success.

The Little Theater

During the school year, the Broughton Little Theater provided entertainment for all dramatically inclined students. At the club meeting every other Tuesday skits and dialogues were given, and personalities were introduced and developed. The new members were initiated by interpreting a character from a play of their choice. Gladys Chambers, vice president, was responsible for the success of the programs.

In January the annual Little Theater play was presented. The Production, "Letters to Lucerne," was a story of life in a girls' school in Switzerland at the outbreak of World War II. The cast included seventeen students, all of them members of the Little Theater. Doris Harrell and Sis Silver were student directors, and Virginia Campbell, prompter.

At a business meeting in February the club decided to use money in the treasury for improvement of the dramatics department. Many interested students cooperated in making the Little Theater room more attractive.

In March the club entered the one-act play, "Jacob Comes Home," in the Carolina Dramatics Association Spring Festival held in Chapel Hill. A group of Little Theater members composed the cast.

Eighteen seniors were chosen this year for membership in the Golden Masquers. The students were eligible because of outstanding work in different phases of play production, having earned the twenty points in one year, or 30 in two years necessary for membership.

The Ground Crew

We're the ground crew—the LATIPAC staff! We labored amid restrictions, rationing, and revisions. Though we experienced many a mental ground loop, by hedge-hopping from the staff room to the typing room, we finally navigated ourselves to that "March 15 deadline."

Peggy Davis was our pilot, directing the course and keeping our book on the beam; Anne Johnson was co-pilot, there to help with the controls; our paymaster, LeRoy Martin, kept our flight records and distributed our funds. Alex Veazey guided our gunners, those ad-getters, who patrolled their particular parts of the sky. Carson Yates was not expendable as our ubiquitous aerial photographer; our bombardiers were Charley Wilfong, Billy Smithdeal, and Margaret Morley —art specialists who did an especially artistic job on the landscape. Among the most important members of our ground crew were our typists, Lizzette Crocker, Martha Bryant Clark, Peggy Smith, Nell Hunter, and Eloise Thomas.

Yes, with our heads in the clouds and both feet on the ground, we did reach our destination: a senior yearbook for the class of '44.

Raleigh opened its football season on September 18 by defeating a highly favored Greensboro team, 13-0. Bobby Crocker and Paul Ellington scored the touchdowns for the Caps.

The next week, Raleigh beat Durham 38-7—their worst loss in years. Bobby Crocker, who played his last game before going to the Marines, led the scoring with 14 points.

October 2, the Caps rolled over the Wilson Cyclones 24-6. Raleigh scored twice in the first three minutes of the game.

Charlotte, spanked to the tune of 28-0, was the next victim of the caps. The "Wildcats" were not able to get past the big purple team's 45 yard line.

The following week Raleigh made its sixth straight win with a 39-0 victory over a fast Wilmington team. The game was highlighted by LeRoy Martin's 70 yard touchdown which was started by an intercepted pass.

Fresh from the Wilmington victory, the Caps rolled up a 60-0 score over the Oxford Orphanage. The little Orphanage team was overpowered from the start, and the entire Raleigh squad saw action.

Raleigh then traveled to Lexington where it had a hard time making its eighth straight victory. The Caps won the game 12-0 behind the hard running of Jordan and Jones.

The Caps celebrated Armistice Day by defeating Burlington 54-0. Walton Ferrell, 160 pound fullback, had a fine night, scoring 18 points.

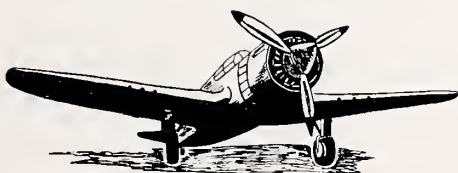

November 21, Raleigh won over Rocky Mount 11-0 to end its regular season undefeated and Eastern Class "A" Champions. Rex Benson scored 10 of the 11 points.

The Caps' next stop was Charlotte to play Central High for the State Championship. The heavily favored Purple Hurricanes could not get going and lost to the Charlotte team 7-0. Charles of Central intercepted a pass on the Caps' 30 yard line and returned it 70 for the lone score and the State Championship.

Coaches Lee J. Stone and Bill Booth led the Raleigh Caps through a most successful season, winning ten games and losing one. The Caps scored 310 points to the opponents 20.

Honors for the team came in large quantities this year. Picked on the all state team of the Greensboro Daily News were Rex Benson, end, and LeRoy Martin, guard. Rex Benson again was chosen on the Charlotte News All-State along with Brantley Poole, guard, and George Cherry, center. Bill Jones, hard driving blocking-back, won the most valuable player award given by the Ambassador Theater. George Cherry was voted the most spirited player on the team, and his name goes on the Bing Crosby trophy, presented to the school by the noted singer.

Mystery cloaked the play of the Caps' basketball team this year. Disposing of the first six opponents in swift fashion the Caps went into the well-known "slump" toward the end of the season. Helping to increase this plight, Captain Tommy Moore and Paul Ellington were absent, the former sick with appendicitis.

Looking back over the season, we find that the seventh game, not being so lucky as the number implies, was played with Durham. The Caps played a flawless game in the Bull City, but were nosed out 45-39 by the high-flying Durham Bulldogs. After this fine play which the Caps exhibited in the next two games with Wilson and Wilmington, victory came by a slim two points in both cases. The following week the Caps dropped three games straight to Goldsboro, Wilson, and Sanford, respectively. In the next game they were rejuvenated with an impressive victory over nearby Garner. The last two games were also fatal to the Broughtonites. Dropping another close one to Durham, the Caps closed the home schedule. The low score of 25-13 was attributed to the fine defensive play of both teams. The final contest was with Fayetteville, in which the Caps were beaten 26-25 in the final 15 seconds.

The Caps were third in conference standings with 6 wins and 5 losses. Much of the success of this team is due to the fine leadership and earnest work of Coach Lee Stone.

Five boys figured mainly in the scoring of the Caps this year. John Sykes with 85 points, George Cherry with 94, Gene Foxworth with 78, Tommy Moore with 70, and Harold Sauls with 67, led the Broughton team.

The "B" squad of the varsity won every game played. LeRoy Martin, "Tapper" Cothran, and Richard Wiggins led the Jayvees in their impressive showings.

The results of the season are as follows: Broughton versus

Fayetteville	38-25	Wilson	30-28
Garner	34-31	Wilmington	28-26
Sanford	49-15	Goldsboro	21-23
Goldsboro	33-22	Wilson	23-32
Rocky Mount	34-23	Sanford	29-31
Wilmington	34-32	Garner	46-32
Durham	39-45	Durham	13-25
Rocky Mount	33-21	Fayetteville	25-26

BASEBALL

As the LATIPAC goes to press, the Raleigh Caps, leaders in the Eastern Conference, are getting to work for the '44 season. Strengthened by the return of six lettermen, Rex Benson, Walt Ferrell, Mack Campbell, Joe Jordan, John Sykes, and pitcher, John Holding, the caps are expecting to make an excellent bid for the Eastern title. Newcomers Harold Sauls, John Charles Williams, and John Senter round out the nucleus of the squad.

Coach Lee J. Stone is pointing to the pitching of Mack Campbell and John Holding to subdue the batters, while heavy hitters John Sykes, Rex Benson, and Walt Ferrell worry the enemy fielders with stinging hits off the "ole bat." Coach Stone thinks the success of the team will depend largely upon the alertness of the fielders in their teamwork rather than the hitting.

This year's team, though lacking in experience, has the "never-say-die" spirit. As with all teams here at Broughton, the baseball team plays with a great feeling of sportsmanship. The Caps are well known throughout the state for their fine competitive spirit.

Chief competition for the Caps are Wilson and Rocky Mount, always strong in the Eastern Conference. Last year the Caps succeeded in beating the Blackbirds of Rocky Mount but were nosed out by the Cyclones of Wilson. Coach Lee Stone's Caps are out to make a name for themselves. The Caps expect to bag plenty of wins in baseball this year. The schedule is as follows:

April 4.....Rocky Mount, here	April 28.....Goldsboro, there
April 7.....Wilmington, here	May 2.....Rocky Mount, there
April 18.....Goldsboro, here	May 5.....Wilmington, there
April 21.....Wilson, here	May 9.....Durham, here
April 25.....Durham, there	* College freshman games not announced.

Doug Worley Elected President; 10 Seniors Initiated to Membership

The WRAL broadcast Thursday night. The program will be a weekly feature designed to introduce and interview Raleigh High athletes and coaches. Appearing on the program last week were Lee Stone, coach, Bill Booth, assistant coach, Bill Jones, Bobby Crocker, Clyde Bryant, Rex Benson, and George Cherry.

Broughton's first official session of the year was the tea to Wednesday afternoon. The receiving line was composed of student council officers, committee chairmen, and Caroline Powell, council adviser, and Marguerite George, social committee adviser.

As the third week of school ended, these statistics were presented. There are exactly 1,000 students at Broughton, of which 180 are seniors, 149 are juniors, and 229 are freshmen. Many states are represented by the 38 students attending Broughton for the first time this year.

Seniors Number 180

Cheer-leaders were voted on in chapel Friday. Of the eleven who tried out on the stage, five were chosen. The Seniors elected are Peggy Davis, Lib Bell and Alex Veazey;

The Student Council sponsored a dance Friday evening in honor of the Raleigh High School football team. Music was furnished by Carl Pritchard and his orchestra.

Something new has been added to the "official news organ of Broughton High School." This first issue of the War Times was distributed Friday, and because of present conditions the paper was in the form of a mimeographed sheet. It will be continued, probably as a weekly publication, if there is sufficient demand from the students, faculty, and alumni. Marian McIntosh, who was elected editor of the Hi Times, heads the staff of the new paper. Celeste Penny is the faculty adviser.

The PTA sponsored its annual Needham Broughton Day on Wednesday. Contributions were made to cover the year's budget. Mrs. Everett Smith, co-chairman of the finance committee, reported that over $300 was donated by the parents.

VICTORY OVER DURHAM ADDS FORCE TO STORM

A Broughton teacher commented that the student body this year is the "most orderly and helpful that has been present in some time."

Three Broughton boys have left school to become members of the armed forces. They are S. W. Goodwin, Bobby Crocker, and Eugene Smith.

BROUGHTON NEWS OFFERS VARIETY

The Broughton Hi Y entertained its new members at a dinner at the S & W Thursday night.

Recognition is given this week to five school-spirited seniors who were the "powers behind the scene" at the Victory Dance held at Broughton last week. The students largely responsible for the success of the dance, which was attended by over 250 students, were Gladys Chambers, Arnold Smith, Dorothy Singleton, Harold Lloyd, and Mary Ellen Wellons.

A talent show—"Backstage at Bitou"—was held in assembly on Friday. It was directed and produced by George Adams and produced by Virginia Campbell, outstanding Chamber ton pianist, and Gladys Chamberlain, the success of the show largely responsible for the success of the show. Dan Martin, president of the student council, attended the executive meeting of the N. C. State Student Council Congress held in Rocky Mount this week-end.

Joe Jordan Lands Berth On All-Southern Eleven

The National Honor Society tapped nine new members Friday. The five seniors and four juniors tapped were Marguerite Caviness, Leroy Martin, Marion McIntosh, Mary Ellen Wellons, Alex Veazey, Sara Denny, Fitz Caudle, Betty Betts and Jo Snow. George Bason and Dot Singleton did the tapping. Betty Bryant introduced the speaker, Doctor Carl Townsend of the Hayes Barton Baptist Church. Betty Jean Culbreth led the devotionals. John Crabtree sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Today will no doubt be a painful day for most of the Broughton senior boys who on Friday began the rigid physical training which is now compulsory in high schools throughout the state. Lee Stone, athletic director, is planning and supervising the "workouts."

Certain privileges have been granted to the upperclassmen the first time this year. The "senior privileges" requested by students and approved by the faculty are: the exemption of seniors from mid-term exams, provided they have an average of at least 90 in the particular subject; an exam week to be held at the end of the semester, and all exams on subject to be given on designated days; and that seniors be allowed to assemble in the gym before class and march in after the underclassmen are seated.

AMERICA WORSHIPS

WITHOUT fear or favor, members of any sound religious faith worship openly in America.

Because religion is important to so many of us, we and our forefathers fought and worked to keep our government free. Government for the people, which permitted us to worship in our faith, gave us courage to build great churches, thriving businesses, dynamic industries, diversified agriculture . . . a land of endless opportunities.

So long as no one man nor one group of men attempt to tell us how we shall worship, America can remain free and her people may continue to provide the strength and initiative to keep her great.

THE HAND is NOT faster than THE EYE!

Consider this: 80 per cent of your motions are controlled by your eyes. Faulty vision inevitably slows you down and causes butterfinger actions.

If you, like most of us, are engaged in some sort of war work—devoted to speed and precision—faults of vision just can't be tolerated.

Find out about your eyesight, if not for your own sake then for the sake of your country at war.

Jack S.: Man, have you got bags under your eyes?

Harry M.: Yeah, I stayed up all last night studying for a blood test.

AUTOGRAPHS

AUTOGRAPHS

AUTOGRAPHS

To the many boys who will leave this senior class and enter the armed forces of our country, we, the LATIPAC staff of 1944, dedicate with reverence and pride this story which some of them will relive:

“This is the day.

“This is the day I’ve looked forward to since I was seventeen . . . this is the day I win my wings.

“Mom and Dad are waiting there. Dad’s standing tense and straight and tall, and his face looks proud and grim as though the General himself might be talking to him.

“As we marched in, Mom waved and I caught the white flutter of her handkerchief out of the corner of my eye. In a moment or two she’s going to cry — just a little, like the night she and Dad and I talked it all out.

“And now here on the parade grounds with the shadows falling, and Old Glory whipping in the sky, I remember Dad said, “Son, your mother and I won’t stand in your way. If this is what you want to do, do it with all your heart and soul . . . and God be with you.”

CHARLIE WILFONG.

BUILDERS DREAMS

VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.

It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the staff in creating their vision into material form.

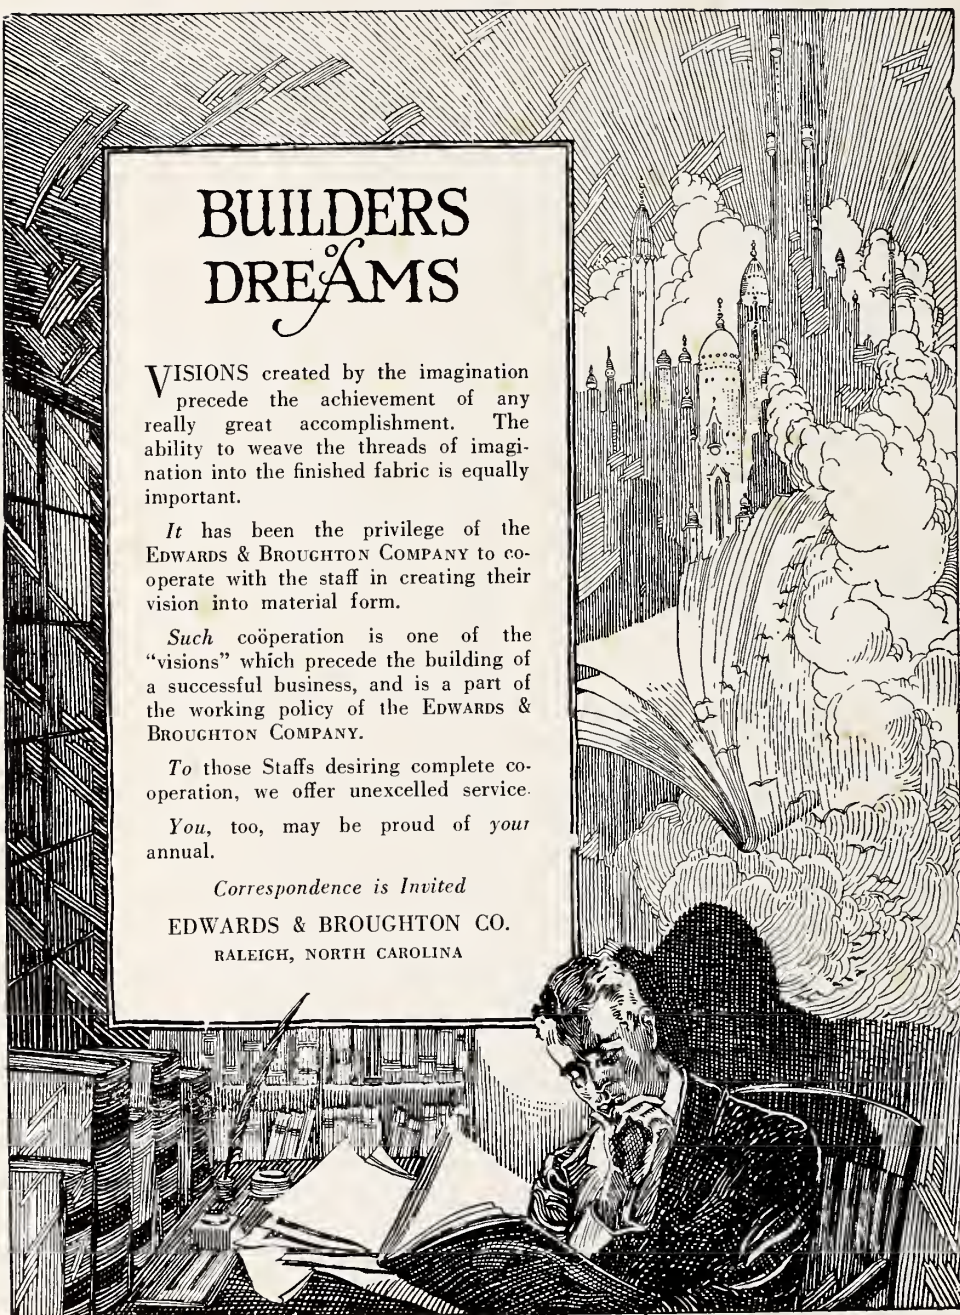

Such coöperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.

To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service.

You, too, may be proud of your annual.
